

SKIN

Endo

3

Azra Naheed Medical College

MBBS 4th Year Class (1st Entry)

Class Test-8 (Special Pathology - SEQs) 15-5-2015

Name: _____

Roll No: 26

Total Time: 45 Minutes

Total Marks: 25

- acute bacterial meningitis*
- Q1. a. A 20-year male had severe headache and neck rigidity. He was admitted to the hospital. Lumbar puncture was performed and examination of the cerebrospinal fluid showed 2 RBC's/microliter, 4,000 WBC's / microliter, glucose of 20 mg/dL, and CSF protein of 105 mg/dL. What is your most likely diagnosis? Acute bacterial meningitis (01)
- b. Give the etiology and clinicopathological features of meningitis 1272 (02)
- c. Tabulate the laboratory diagnosis differences of bacterial and viral meningitis. Sqd. (02)

- Practical Journal*
- Q2. a. Give the histological classification of central nervous system tumors. (03)
- b. Explain the morphological features of meningioma? 1314 (02)

- Q3. A 54 year old lady presented with history of polyuria, polydipsia and weight loss. Her urine examination showed high glucose in it. Enlist various lab investigations of diabetes mellitus. 1106 (05)

- Q4. a. Briefly discuss risk and prognostic factors of melanoma. (03)
- b. Describe Breslows scoring. (01)
- c. Which tumor markers are used for the diagnosis of melanoma? (01)

- Q5. Describe morphology and grading of squamous cell carcinoma. (03+02)