

AzraNaheed Medical College

Department Of Forensic Medicine and Toxicology

Sent-Up Examination 2016(September)

SEQ

TIME: 2hrs

Marks: 50

Q 1 Define hypostasis. Give five important differences between postmortem lividity and bruise(5).

Q2 A Yong girl is brought to medicolegal clinic for assessment of age

a. Which X-RAYS would you like to advice, enumerate sites. (1)

Hand wrist elbow

b. Give circumstances in which question of age may form the basis of medicolegal investigation. (4)

Q3. A dead body of 42 yrs. old male was brought for postmortem examination with H/O FIREARM injury by rifled weapon. An entry wound was found on front of left side of chest and there was no exit wound.

a. Give characteristics of close range entry wound. (2)

b. Define beveling (1.5) ✓

c. Define Ricocheting (1.5) ✓

Q4. Define professional misconduct, Give its examples(5)

Q5. A 35 yrs. old female, victim of rape is brought for medicolegal examination, give steps of local examination(5)

Q6. DEFINE medicolegal autopsy. Discuss autopsy protocol.(5)