

15/1/16

(2)

Anmol

Final year MBBS Class Test 19-02-2016

SEQ

Q.1A 31 years old woman P2+0 came to gynae OPD for contraceptive advice. After evaluation you decided to offer her progestogen only contraception. Briefly describe the currently available methods of progestogen only contraception. 05

Q.2 A 28 years old P4 +0 presented in OPD with history of profuse vaginal discharge, whitish grey colour with a fishy odour.

- a) What is the most likely diagnosis? Bacterial vaginosis. 01
- b) What investigations you will advice her to confirm diagnosis? 2.5
- c) What treatment will you prescribe her? 1.5

Q.3 55 years woman has come with history of something coming out of vagina. on examination she has 3rd degree of utero-vaginal prolapsed.

- a) Name three associated urinary symptoms she may experience with this condition. 1.5
- b) Name in ascending order the pedicals of vaginal hysterectomy are clamped, ligated, & cut. 1.5
- c) Enlist the complication of vaginal hysterectomy can occur. 02

Q.4 A 45 years multiparous lady complains of dribbling urine on coughing, & sneezing.

- a) What is diagnosis, define urethral sphincter Stress Incontinence.

incontinence.

01

a) What is diagnosis?.

0.5

b) Outline steps of management.

2.5

Q.5 19 years G2P0+1 at 12 weeks of gestation presented with bleeding per vaginum and passage of vesicals like structures. Miscarriage Incomplete

Write its management plan.

05