

26 -

REVISED TEST (4) FINAL YEAR

M.B.B.S 01.08.2016

⇒ hysterectomy
⇒ hysteroscopy
⇒ laparoscopy, tubal ligation

✓ Q. 1. a) Name the 4 gynaecological operative procedure during which the patient is at risk of bladder injury. 02

*b) How can you prevent the injury to the bladder. pg#342AC 03

✓ Q. 2. 60 years old lady is diagnosed case of CA of endometrium or endometrial biopsy. Write it's management plan. pg#256AC 05

Q. 3. 20 years PG at 9 weeks gestation with threatened miscarriage. Her USG revealed alive pregnancy in one horn of a bicornuate uterus with single cervix.

↑ C-section
• IUGR
miscarriage malposition
pre-term birth

← a) Write five likely possible outcomes in her case: 04

b) The outcome depends on which factor? age, uterine abnormality, gestation

✓ Q. 4. 40 years old patient come HMB you have planned hysteroscopy.

← a) Write down other indications of hysteroscopy. 353 + 351 C
write 6 indications. 03

b) What complications can occur due to hysteroscopy.

Name 4 complications. ⇒ uterine perforation 02

• hemorrhage
• Bladder injury, gas embolism, infection, free

Q. 5. 45 years old has been admitted through OPD for TAH for fibroid uterus. She is worried about the possible complications of her surgery.

What are the immediate complications of abdominal hysterectomy.

Write 10 complications. pg#360AC 05

Q. 6. 45 years old lady presents with irregular vaginal bleeding. She has been advised diagnostic dilatation and curettage (D&C) by her doctor.

How will you perform the procedure? pg#349AC 05