

Qno.2 : Give clinical classification of reflexes.
(2)

- Qno.3 : What happens to superficial reflexes in lower motor neuron lesions? (2)

Qno.1: Give the components of a reflex arc. (2)

Long Question

Write down the principle of pregnancy test.
How it is performed and interpretation of results? (10)

-
- Qno.20 : Give two precautions that should be taken while performing pregnancy test. (2)

- Qno.14 : What is effector,s response in triceps reflex? (2)

- Qno.15 : Knee jerk is an example of
 - a) Monosynaptic reflex
 - b) Polysynaptic reflex
- (2)

- Qno.12 : How stretch reflexes are graded? (2)

- Qno.13 : In which conditions, the technique of reinforcement is to be used? (2)

- Qno.18 : Write down root value of knee jerk?
(2)

- Qno.19 : Identify the object. (2)

- Qno.16 : In which conditions tendon jerks are abolished? (2)

- Qno.17 : Define clonus.In which condition, sustained clonus is seen? (2)

- Qno.6 : In which conditions, superficial reflexes are abolished? (2)

- Qno.7 : What is meant by positive pregnancy result? (2)

- Qno.4 : What is the normal plantar response?
(2)

- Qno.5 : Give root value of anal reflex. (2)

- Qno.10 : Give two causes of an invalid pregnancy test. (2)

- Qno.11: Define stretch reflex. (2)

• Qno.8 : What are the different zones of a pregnancy strip? (2)

- Qno.9 : Identify the object. Give its use. (2)

