

B Myringoplasty
 Tympanoplasty
 ETT
 D Tympanometry
 Audiometry

SEQ/PRE PROF EXAM 2015, 1st YEAR MBBS AZRA NAHEED MEDICAL COLLEGE
 LAHORE

Time allowed: 2 Hours

Total Marks: 45

ATTEMPT ALL THE QUESTIONS

1. A 33 years male came to OPD with complaint of right sided facial weakness & is unable to close his right eye. On questioning he gave history of blood stained, bad smelling ear discharge from right side.

- a. What is your diagnosis? Alveolar otitis media with facial paralysis.
- b. Name 4 complications of that disease. (4)

2. An 18 years old male was hit on his nose by fist during quarrel last night. He developed bilateral nasal obstruction by morning time. The only and significant finding is bilateral dark red, convex soft swelling occupying anterior part of nose.

- a. What is the diagnosis? Sep haemorrhage
- b. How will you treat it? Aspiration & wide bore needle under topical anaesthesia
- c. What are the complications if not treated? 2 systemic antibiotic, 3 incision and drainage of bilateral nasal polyp

3. A lady of 30 years of age presented to ENT department with history of deafness and tinnitus in her right ear for the last 5 years, she noticed it during her first pregnancy. Deafness was increasing progressively. Now she is developing same problem in her left ear. There is history of hearing loss in her mother as well.

- a. What is most probable diagnosis? Otosclerosis (1)
- b. What is differential diagnosis? (2)
- c. What is the treatment of this case? Asymptomatic, Tympanosclerosis

4. A school boy of 17 years of age presented to ENT OPD with history of right side nasal obstruction. Permanent in nature since childhood and intermittent nasal obstruction of left side, there is also history of headache and post nasal drip.

- a. What is your diagnosis? Chronic sinusitis DNS, Spurt (1)
- b. Write 4 causes of unilateral nasal obstruction - 173 book septoplasty, SUR
- c. How would you treat this case? Utricle irrigation, nasal decongestant (s/n)

5. A 60 years old lady presented in ENT with history of dysphagia for 1 year, patient is pale, Hb is 8 mg %, now she developed hoarseness of voice for one month, right sided cervical lymph node was enlarged.

- a. What is your diagnosis? CA Larynx (1)
- b. Give differential diagnosis. (2)
- c. What investigations will you advise? (2)

6. A patient has severe episodic pain right ear for one week. There is no H/O ear discharge or hearing loss. O/E No tenderness on pulling the pinna. Ext auditory canal & tympanic membrane are normal Rinne's is positive both ears.

- a. What is most likely diagnosis? Otalgia Greater Auricular nerve
- b. Write sensory Nerve supply of the pinna? - 4 Book Lesser occipital nerve
- c. Name the nerves responsible for pain in the ear if the disease is in Auriculotemporal nerve

7. A young lady came in emergency department with H/O Blunt trauma left ear 2 hours back. O/E she had perforation of the tympanic membrane. There was no ear discharge.

- a. What advise / treatment you will give to this lady at this stage
- b. If perforation does not heal after 3 months what treatment will you give her? (2)
- c. What investigation you will require while giving treatment after 3 months (2)

8. You were called to see a new born baby who was asphyxiated & turned blue soon after birth. The symptoms were relieved on crying & recur again on closing the mouth. The baby also turned blue on suckling.

- a. What is most probable diagnosis? Bilateral Choanal atresia
- b. What tests you will perform to confirm your diagnosis CT scan
- c. How will you treat the baby in emergency & later on 183

9. Write short notes on:
 - Name the neck space abscesses
 - Tympanitis

*Ludwig's Angina
 Parotid abscess
 Retropharyngeal abscess Parapharyngeal abscess*

(1) Conservative treatment
 (2) Do not require any specific treatment
 (3) If Pain, Pain kill are given
 (4) prevent water intake

A Throat

Tympanic membrane perforation

lecture