

CLASS TEST 4th YEAR MBBS

SQUINT AND OPTIC NERVE (SEQs)

Total Marks:-30

Time Allowed:-50 min

27-07-2017

1. A 67 year old man had headache which was made worst by coughing and straining. he had transient attacks of blurred vision and also had projectile vomiting without nausea on examination there is bilateral disc swelling
 - a. What is your diagnosis? 1
 - b. What is the treatment of this disease? 2
 - c. What would be the differential diagnosis? 2

2.
 - a. Write down the etiology of papillitis 2
 - b. Explain the early and late changes(on fundus examination)
In papillitis 3

3. A child of 3 years age was brought to OPD; he was diagnosed with congenital squint (manifest).

Write down the treatment of concomitant squint 5

4. Patient complaints of diplopia, he has developed abnormal head posture, on examination his right eye has restricted extraocular motility except his lateral rectus and superior oblique muscles which are functioning normal,write down the investigations of a case of a paralytic squint in detail. 5

5. Write down the differences between paralytic and concomitant squint 5

~~Handwritten signature~~