

14058

AZRA NAHEED MEDICAL COLLEGE
DEPARTMENT OF OPHTHALMOLOGY
Class Test MBBS 4th year

(UVEITIS)

Time allowed: - 45mins

Dated: 24-05-2018

Total Marks: - 28

Q1.

- a) What is uveitis? 156 1
- b) Write down the classification of uveitis. 156 3
- c) Name and describe clinical feature of anterior iridocyclitis 158 3

Q2. A middle aged man has come with intense pain in his left eye with decreased vision, watering and photophobia. He also complaints of lower back pain. On examination there is marked ciliary injection. Pupil is small and non-reacting to light. The eyeball is tender.

- a) What is the most probable diagnosis? Acute iridocyclitis 1
- b) ^{Vision, slit lamp, IOP, Tension.} What ocular and systemic workup is required in this case? 159 3
- c) How will you treat this patient? 159 3

Q3. A young man had penetrating injury to his right eye, the primary repair was done, after few weeks the patient complaints of blurring of vision pain and photophobia in the normal left eye, on examination there are mutton fat keratic precipitates, focal infiltrates in choroid (Dalen Fuchs nodule).

ultrasonography
FFA

- a) What is your diagnosis? Sympathetic ophthalmitis 1
- b) How will you investigate this case and put differential diagnosis of this case? 3
- c) What is treatment of this disease? 3

- Sarcoidosis
- Tuberculosis
- Syphilis

Q4. Define intermediate and posterior uveitis.

Write down the complications of intermediate and posterior uveitis

- Cause of granulomatous uveitis
- phacoanaphylactic uveitis
- Cystic macular edema
- complicated cataract
- Secondary glaucoma
- Tractional RD
- Band Keratopathy